Henrietta Boowuo, MA
Department Computer and Information Technology
Polytechnic Institute

Dear Henrietta,

I am pleased to congratulate you for being selected to receive the 2025 OGSPS Excellence in Teaching Award, presented by the Office of the Vice Provost for Graduate Students and Postdoctoral Scholars. You were selected from a group of nominees put forward as the top candidates from Colleges across campus. As you can imagine, the credentials of all the nominees were excellent. Among your credentials, the selection committee took special note of the systematic application of your teaching philosophy, and your systematic engagement in the scholarship of teaching and learning, especially in the ethics of AI use.

An award of $1,000.00 accompanies your selection. I am copying Ms. Sally Abdou, OGSPS business manager, to begin the process for you to receive this.

OGSPS also invites you and up to five guests to an awards banquet honoring the 2024-25 OGSPS award winners. This event will be held on Thursday, April 24, 2025, in the Faculty Lounges of the Purdue Memorial Union, on the West Lafayette campus, beginning with cocktails at 6 pm, dinner at 6:30 pm, and the program at 7:15 pm. Please contact my Executive Assistant Ms. Lori Miller (mill2071@purdue.edu) to confirm your and your guests' attendance.

Cheers and best wishes on behalf of the Office of the Vice Provost for Graduate Students and Postdoctoral Scholars!

Sincerely,

David Rollock, PhD
150th Anniversary Professor, and Professor of Psychological Sciences
Assistant Vice Provost of the Office for Graduate Students and Postdoctoral Scholars
